

TOWN OF VULCAN

BYLAW NO. 1352-07

A Bylaw of the Town of Vulcan, in the Province of Alberta, to designate the A.G.T. Building as a Municipal Historic Resource

WHEREAS the Historical Resources Act permits the Municipal Council of a municipality to designate any historic resource within the municipality whose preservation it considers to be in the public interest together with any land on which it is located as a Municipal Historic Resource upon giving notice to the owner of the resource in accordance with the Act; and

WHEREAS it is deemed in the public interest to designate the building located in the Town of Vulcan currently known as the A.G.T. Building and the land on which it is situated which was the location of the telephone office in Vulcan known as A.G.T. which opened in September 1917 and was the key of communication in Vulcan, as a Municipal Historic Resource; and

WHEREAS the Town of Vulcan is the owner of the A.G.T. Building and the land on which it is situated.

NOW THEREFORE the Council of the Town of Vulcan in the Province of Alberta, having complied with the Historical Resources Act, and duly assembled, hereby enacts as follows:

1. The A.G.T. Building, which was constructed in September 1917 and located at 232 Centre Street in the Town of Vulcan in the Province of Alberta, legally described as Lot 35 Block 7 Plan 9710677, shown and outlined on the sketch annexed hereto as Schedule "A: is hereby designated as a Municipal Historic Resource.
2. The exterior and interior of the A.G.T. Building is hereby designated as a Municipal Historic Resource and shall not be removed, destroyed, disturbed, altered, restored, repaired or otherwise permanently affected, other than in accordance with proposals or policies approved by the Council of the Town of Vulcan from time to time.
3. The Development Officer is hereby appointed to render comment to Council on any policies or proposals the Vulcan and District Historical Society may have from time to time, to alter the building.
4. This Bylaw comes into affect upon third and final reading hereof.
